[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 RALEIGH, N. C., October 30.—Miss Daisy Denison was hostess for the Tuesday Afternoon Club the past week. "The Creation" was the special subject for study. Mrs. Cary Hunter presented a paper on "The Creation According to the Greeks," and Mrs. R. B. Raney, a paper on "The North European Idea of the Creation." There were special readings by Mrs. R. B. John from "The Bible," and by Mrs. J. B. Wynne concerning the Burnside-Jones paintings of the creation.
 The Five Hundred Club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. T. B. Wamack. A Halloween spirit was imparted by decorations and score-cards and favors appropriate to the season. The guests were Mrs. W. V. Robinson, Mrs. H. W. Jackson, Mrs. F. K. Ellington, Mrs. R. Y. McAden, Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Miller, Miss Dixie Leach, Miss Buchanan, of Wilmington; Mrs. W. N. H. Smith, Mrs. R. D. W. Connor, Mrs. F. L. Stevens, Mrs. J. M. Albright, Mrs. J. Bryan, of Raleigh; Mrs. T. P. B. Jones, Mrs. Alfred Williams, Mrs. J. B. Raney, Mrs. E. M. Harper, Mrs. A. J. Field and Mrs. R. E. McGeechy.
 The Raleigh Woman's Club meeting this week was devoted to the civic department. Ex-Chief Justice James B. Shephard delivered an address on "Woman's Part in Directing the Civic Affairs in City Government." It was one of the most largely attended and interesting meetings the club has held this season.
 Mrs. Bennett Smodes and Miss Mary Smodes went to Washington, D. C., the past week to attend the wedding of Miss Emily Smodes and John Holmes.
 The Wednesday Afternoon Club had for hostess this week, Miss Emmie Dwyer. The guests were Misses Willie and Ruby Norris, Pearlie Hock, Mary Grimes Cowper, Loula McDonald, Caro Gray, Dea Duncan, Louisa Lamar, Melissa Myers, of Indiana, Annie Young, Juliette Crews, Mamie Hay, Lizzie Rogers, Emmie Haywood and Miss Lanier.
 The Johnsoonian Book Club was fortunate in having for hostess Thursday afternoon Mrs. William J. Andrews, who gave the club women and their guests a most delightful afternoon. The literary study was "The Impress of the Greeks and Mohammedanism in Africa." There were papers by Miss Ward and by Mrs. Jackson.

Wilmington Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 WILMINGTON, N. C., October 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones and Mrs. Sadie Jones arrived this week from New York, and are now at Ables-on-the-Sound. They will remain there for some time. They have had a house party with Wilmington friends at Ables since the middle of the week.
 The golf season for the winter months will soon also be inaugurated. A meeting of the Cape Fear Country Club has been called for Monday night, when a number of special events, aside from the regular ones, will be discussed and likely scheduled. Allan Mills this week represented the club in the golf tournament held in Charleston, S. C.

Misses Lillian and Olivia Horne returned this week from a visit to Miss Mary Foreman, at Norfolk.
 Mrs. W. A. Whitler, wife of Lieutenant Whitler, now in command of the United States revenue cutter, Semholie, stationed at this port, has arrived from Seattle, Washington, to join her husband here.
 Quite a social gathering of relatives was held Wednesday in honor of the birthday of a friend, the birthday of Colonel William L. De Rose, one of the most venerable and prominent citizens of this city.
 The annual reception of the Young Men's Christian Association was held last night in the handsome parlors of the association building, and was most charming and successful. The parlors were beautifully decorated for the occasion, and delicious refreshments were served. The reception was given by the members of the association, assisted by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

A pretty home wedding which took place Thursday night was that of Miss Ella Vereen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Vereen, and J. L. Edge, the event being celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, and the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. H. Foster, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church. Miss Ella Vereen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Richardson.

This Week is Bargain Week Here

Extraordinary Sale of Ready-to-Wear Apparel

On the very threshold of the winter season we will inaugurate our stupendous November Clearing Sale

At prices heretofore unheard of in a November sale. All are new, stylish garments, at prices on third and one-half less than asked by our competitors for the same class of merchandise. The garments in this sale are the outcome of sharp buying and ready cash. We bought them from the foremost ladies' tailors in New York City. Remember, only the best of quality, cut and workmanship in any of these garments. It is with pride and pleasure that we make this excellent offer for this week's selling to our patrons. Such a saving, particularly at the beginning of the season THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NOT AN OLD GARMENT, SUIT OR COAT IN THIS LOT.
